

21 pippins

Miss Mason.
2. Apsley Crescent.
Bradford.

Some such account would be a recommendation to my teachers. (Acts like stores they sell at Watering Places at the top of Note Paper might perhaps be had cheap. I would ask you about it if you like.)

13, LINDUM TERRACE, BRADFORD,
YORKSHIRE.

11 p.m. Oct. 25. 1884.

Dear Miss Mason

I have received your Vth. Book & am reading it with interest. I am sorry that I have not been more successful in introducing your previous books into this district. It is, I am afraid, the tendency of bad books like bad corn to drive out good.

The Art of Book making for use under the New Code is something fit to amuse gods & men.
Even our old friend "Horatius" has to be garbled to suit the market. The text - easy as it is - is too hard for the use of children under the Code. For example

"if no forth three chiefs came spurring Before that deep array;
To earth they sprang, their swords they drew And lifted high their shields and flew To win the narrow way."

improved

Would you suppose that this needed editing for use in schools? Yet it does, & becomes

Before that silent mass

To win the narrow pass.

Thus "array" is weeded out, & there is a word the less to learn ~~knowing~~ the meaning & spelling of.

Still I hope that some schools may adopt your books.

I hope you may find it profitable to write a "Heimatkunde" for Yorkshire. The teacher & children are sadly

Upsilon 6

ignorant. What is wanted is a 1/6 pamphlet. Books must be cheap for these schools. In many cases the teachers practically supply the books. They are residuary legatees when all other claims on the school income have been paid off. I think Arnold of Leeds would probably get such a book published through Hulskin & Marshall. A picturesque account of Yorks.

Surface. Relief. Rivers in W. Cleveland
Humber etc in E. Vale of York. The Dales, Cruces in Cleveland.

Surface. Rainfall & Rivers. 30 to 100 inches of rain on Pennines.

Climate - productions - coal - iron - wool. cereals Localities. Towns. Roads. Canals. ports, history. Roman Times. York a Roman metropolis.

Saxon Times. Whithby.

Medieval Times. Yorkshire Monasteries.

Pilgrimage of Grace.

Manor House.

Woolloom Industry. Middletons' Sheffield.

hypnœus

9/1/90.

Dear Miss Mason

many thanks for your letter Mr Brunell has returned the prospectus with herewith forward. It is beyond criticism. Even if only parts can be carried out the Mag must be invaluable.

The foes are a party self-conceit jealousy & spite, in face of which progress must be made laboriously. Hold on' must be

12 p 2 P.M. 1846

The motto. Believe me
Yours sincerely
W. Cooper

isplneub

21. X. '90.

Dear Miss Mason

I have written to Mr Briggs offering an (old) paper on "Revenue" at any time & preparing & attempt to deal with the very important subject wh:
the suggest - 'Home v. School' as a training place' next year.

I think the prospectus of the Sept - S. R. is quite excellent. You know

Apparatus

I have desiderated the support of the Lord's spiritual & you have secured the service of the very ablest of them all. I am sure this number ought to help the Review mimensely.

Yours sincerely

T. Rodger

épl pneum

7. X. '90.

Dear Miss Nason

I have written to my Uncle to ask Dean Terrone to assemble a meeting at October either in the Deansery or in a public room, on the 22nd for choice or the 30th inst.

I am sure my Uncle will help if he can, as he was always a great educationist. But he is 90!

That is a capital article on Prof^r-Green, the best thing wh: I have seen written about

14p2pnw6

S. C. S.

Enclosed -

him. It might have come from his widow's pen.

Where is it?

An article like that ought to clear the field of any hazy impression of ecclesiastical narrowness in the Union.

Yours sincerely

J. W. Cooper

Aspinwall

30 - 1.00

Dear Miss

Please find my paper herewith. I am very glad you like it. What you say about possessing a staff of its own seems to me true.
I will try to get someone to write. I fear he is not a good sort of man, however, in our purpose. Mr. Barret's negotiations with S. Stock seem

15 p3pm 16

It me to be the most useful or future success & the most just course in reference of Shareholders.

I have tried to get Mr Kennedy to send you a paragraph. He has been interested in the education of his sons. He is now Inspector of Schools &
Supt of Schools when in office.

15 p3pm 16

He asked me 8 questions last Friday about his best course & advice in his own education. I then showed him the P.R. which he took away being fascinated with it.

I will see if Mrs & Rose could not be induced to write.

Get Mrs Beale to ask her.
She was a Cheltenham Scholar & I believe a successful student.
She worshipped Cheltenham & Mrs Beale. I do not know how much Mrs Beale died.

W.H. Wm. H. Jones
St. Louis

isoprene

I am too busy & get to Bucknall 11th

My idea is that when you address the company it would be well to commence with a brief statement of the aims the truth & profits of its need.
People do not understand these points. Your excellent advice & stimulating suggestions would be more effective following upon such an overture. I may be wrong, but infer this from the habit of men like Buckmaster & other successful missionaries in educational matters.

The Church of the Hundred Steps.

31 i6P/pneub
~~XII~~ 90.

Dunheved 1st Thanet Heath Surrey.

Dear Miss Mason

I will send a few lines to you by ~~bark~~ tomorrow.
I have not forgotten about Kegan Paul - but I don't know their view of the matter (you see it's not quite the same as ours - it can't be - there are always the risks to a bargain) and I admit I do not understand you agreeing to take up the Review

162 as it stands. W. the exception of your initiation (of which of course I am entirely the success) I have written articles, such as the one by Danby, I do not remember anything striking in our year.

For instance, the hakes of mine which you wished me to receive money for would have been refused over & over again by magazines & (through no fault of ours) we have been unable to get good work

16p3pnewb

Don't imagine that I put my paper higher than others high as others; but, frankly, I have not seen the literary side; while my Book column has been far worse than rubbish & all continue the so. You can't get decent work out of a man when his fuglets are filled with other cares.

I am not writing. Preparing lecture for Jan 10, 12, 13, 18, 20. I have lectures already taken; beginning 100c. We get $15 worth at N.Y.C.

You have a children's afternoon again - you can always ask me for children. I shall have to arrange it better, I think.

I can't understand the Decth no being more than 1000 when they spent money on advertising. If you want I can't find it on the stalls?

You know you are welcome to anything I can write, provided I'm not asked to put 164pneub my name to it; but this rich book. I'll give you a Fairy Tale of pleasure which I'm writing for one of my Ratreevans

The Church of the Hunted stag; and say no if you don't care for it. In doing it now, I'm

isoprene

just back from a long Jazz at B. Mus.
After their holiday, I mean to take some at Walla Walla.

1891.

Mr. Galt (not Mr.)
Mr. Pearce
Mr. Burch
